<sup>1</sup> All prices are in Australian dollars and include GST. Orders from outside Australia will not include GST (10%). All orders include World Indices as a free offer

You can now choose the data updates you want to subscribe to, you also have the option of purchasing "Extra data history".

With dataHQ you can choose to:

- a) use our free 6 month data history.
- b) pay a "once only data access fee" to access more historical data.

The Equities Extra history files give you data for:

- ASX from 1992 onwards
- SGX from 1994 onwards
- US Exchanges from 1985 onwards

For our EOD Forex subscribers there is also a Forex Extra history file, which attracts a separate fee, please ensure you choose the correct history type.

The Forex Extra history files give you Spot data for:

- Non - Euro pairs from 1991 onwards
- Euro based pairs from 1999 onwards.

In the above example, the data options chosen are:

- ASX EOD data, US EOD data and access to the Equities Extra History.
- The ASX and US data updates are charged monthly, the history access is NOT a recurring monthly fee, but a "once only access fee".

Once again when this page is complete click on the "next" button.

This screen asks for your credit card details, once your details have been entered and you click on the "go" button, you will be taken to a confirmation screen, which allows you to review before proceeding with the subscription.
